

Red Cross To Participate In Community Chest Here

A small group of members met in the Lions hall for the annual Red Cross meeting on Wednesday of last week.

Reports were given showing that the Red Cross had been very active during the year. The amount of $1784 had been collected during the campaign, of which $1700 had been forwarded to Red Cross headquarters.

Two blood donor clinics were held during the year.

The Women's Work Committee showed a good amount of work being done by the ladies of the district. There was a very urgent need for this work and anyone wishing to help should contact Mrs. E. Cogswell, chairman of the committee.

Miss Rachael Maikien, who attended the youth leadership course at the Banff School of Fine Arts last summer, gave a most interesting report. This course is under the auspices of the Red Cross and after hearing her report it was felt that it is a very worthwhile project. The matter of Community Chest was discussed and it was agreed that this branch join the chest for one year, and if it works out satisfactorily, should continue its membership.

Officers elected: Mr. E. Cogswell, president; vice-president for town, Mr. C. Leson; vice-president for west, Mr. J. H. Robertson; vice-president for east, Mr. K. Burns; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. E. Reinhardt; chairman blood donor clinic, Mr. A. W. Reiber; chairman of women's work committee, Mrs. E. Cogswell, to be assisted by Mrs. M. Wood.

Other committees were left as they were, with the addition of Dr. Bankier to the swimming and safety committee.

Ramblers Still Breaking Even

Didsbury's entry in the Chinook Hockey League have been unable to get a real whine streak going but they are fairly consistent, win one and lose one, and maybe throw a tie in between. Playing here Saturday night against the league-leading Red Deer team, the locals held the northern club to its shortest win margin of the year — just two goals separated them at the final whistle. A very good show on the part of Ramblers who were tangling with a club that has gone undefeated in league play this term.

Irwin with two, Devine and Neufeld with one each, were the marksmen for Didsbury.

Playing in Infaal on January 16, Ramblers turned back the Aces by a 5-2 count. The game produced plenty of rough hockey, plenty of standstays and a raise in league standings for the locals.

Carstairs will be guests on local ice tonight (Thursday) and with the two clubs fighting for a higher win average, you can expect that all stops will be pulled out. Make it a point to be at the arena at game time, 8:30, tonight.

Takes Out $25,000 "Twin" Insurance Policy

While her husband holds his head, Mrs. Jean Blechman tells of betting Lloyd's of London, that she'll have a third set of twins in May. The Long Island housewife and her friends and relatives pooled their funds to meet premium of $1,875 on the $25,000 twin insurance policy issued by Lloyd's. Mrs. Blechman already is the mother of twins — two sets of them. She is expecting again about May 15.

Chitter-Chatter

By Our High School Scribbler

We reprint in our column this week a poem written by Miss Sandra Brown, a Grade 9 'A' student at Didsbury. The following depicts what the hockey Ramblers are up against in a normal contest.

I don't like the name of a certain rough game, The game that they label as hockey. If they rap up their faces they did with the "Aces". The name of the game should be "sockey".

It's the simplest trick To trip with a stick, Or "knock out a couple of teeth".

And the customers yore Give "Neufeld" some more, Or cause for donating a wreath.

If you want to see speed And a few people bleed, Just gather an eye full of hockey: If you want to see nice Semi-murder on ice, See the "Ramblers" and "Aces" play "sockey".

With "Jackson" in goal There isn't a soul Afraid of the final tally: With "Miller and Don I" And Butch stepping high, The "Aces" were outclassed like "Aunt Sally".

There was "Howie" there too, With his rushes right through, And "Cowan" shouting instructions; There was "Cliff and Wayne Shantz".

"Lloyd and Bob" within wants And the timekeeper looking for ructions. The above-mentioned crew Are looking to you To see they get some new quarters; So try to be nice And let them have ice To play on instead of just water.

Mountain View Institute Make Donation To Didsbury Rest Room

Regular meeting of Mountain View W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. Max Wood recently. Roll call was answered with payment of dues. Twelve members and three visitors were present.

The members received an invitation to open house at E. St. Clair's golden wedding at Olds on April 3. Each member is to bring a laundry-sized shirt to the next meeting or pay a fine. All handicraft articles are to be brought to the March meeting, also three bran muffins to be judged.

Correspondence was read and consisted of 10 letters, nine thanking cards for parcels or gifts and one from the Unitarian Service for a cash donation. Each member is to do some Red Cross sewing, pick it up and also return it to Mrs. M. Wood.

The topic by Mrs. Trev Morgan for home economics was a talk and demonstration on fancy sandwiches. This was very attractive and enjoyed by all and served for tea. Motion was carried that the W.I. pay the dues and get Home and Country for the girls' club supervisor, assistant supervisor and assistant district supervisor. Mrs. Walter Scheidt was enrolled as a new member.

Total receipts last year were $631. Total disbursements $346.45. The draw netted $155 and was won by Mrs. C. S. Wagner.

Mrs. Otto Bittner will be district agriculture and Canadian Industries convener to replace Mrs. E. Stiles, who resigned.

A donation of $50 was made to the Didsbury rest room project.

Local Rinks Do Well In Last Week's Curlfest

The shouting is all over for another year as far as the local men's bonspiel is concerned and it was a pleasing thing to see a local four-some come out in top in the first event. The famous foursome also won the grand aggregate with a total of seven wins in the two main events. Personnel of the top rink: Herb Sinclair, skip; Glen Roberts, third; Fred Rodway, second; Lloyd Devine, lead.

Arsley of Carstairs took first in the second and third events; and the Fred Evans quartet took the fourth event in the final of the last event. Personnel of the rink: Fred Evans, skip; Ray Campbell, third; Elmer Pieper, second; Ed Klink, lead.

Following is a list of winners: First Event: 1—Sinclair, Didsbury 2—Richards, Olds 3—Schumaker, East Didsbury 4—Sorenson, Didsbury

Second Event: 1—Arsley, Carstairs 2—Holmes, Olds 3—Sorenson, Didsbury 4—Kimmel, Didsbury

Third Event: 1—Arsley, Carstairs 2—Worrie, Didsbury 3—Morris, Didsbury 4—Allen, Didsbury

Fourth Event: 1—Evans, Didsbury 2—Shantz, Didsbury 3—Morris, Didsbury 4—Schumaker, East Didsbury

Feelin' At The Old Game . . . It was nice to see one of the younger skips take home a trophy. We mean, of course that perennial youngster "Jack Worrie, who was in the thick of the fight with his helpers right to the end.

Also nice, in a nasty sort of way, to see a highly touted rink from our northern suburbs (Olds) take a real whipping from the Sorenson rink. They failed to take home any of the jewellery and we can just imagine the excuses that came out of that.

The ice was crooked enough to make it interesting and the artificial slants fell by the wayside. A high school team did fairly well in the early running but faded under pressure.

The under-rated Law rink were unable to spare time for the annual curlfest but on any convenient date would challenge any rink that were winners in the 'spiel for a prize to be agreed upon by the skips. (The third man on each rink to make arrangements. Are you listening, George?)

Preachers . . .

Should preach only one sermon or so a year. People are against sin anyway, so why harp on it.

Traffic Lights . . .

Should be turned off at dangerous intersections to save electricity. Everybody knows it's a dangerous spot and that is sufficient.

Teachers . . .

Do not need to review lessons. Tell the children just once and they'll never forget.

Highway Police . . .

Stop driving up and down the highways. No need to caution drivers by patrolling highways. Drivers know the law and should obey.

Out of Towners . . .

That advertisements in the local paper and mail order firms that send out catalogues are wasting their money. Everyone knows what is sold in the stores in town and they'll all shop at home.

But if you are one of the foolish kind — like the Notre Dame cathedral that has stood for six centuries but still rings the bell every day to let people know it is still there — and believe in continuous, profitable advertising then you will want to advertise in

By W. K. SNYDER
Agricultural Service Board

Check That Seed: Right now is a good time to look over your summer's seed requirements and make sure that you have available good quality, high germinating, weed-free seed. With the abundance of good quality grain resulting from last year's harvest, many farmers have their own seed to use. Don't take any chances, run a germination test on all seed you may be using for seed.

Often times good looking grain can fool you badly and have low germination. After you are sure of germination, arrange to do a very thorough cleaning job one that will remove ALL weed seeds.

I can think of nothing that will contribute more satisfactorily to ensuring the development of the new crop than to be very particular and extra careful in arranging to use top quality weed-free seed. If you are planning to seed grass or legumes in the new crop year, you would also be well advised to make sure now about securing the seed requirements.

Last year a shortage of certain seed developed about seeding time. Those of you who must buy your cereal seed, make sure that you get it from a farm that is free from road flax. This seed is extremely difficult to remove completely and, if it gets a start on your farm, can make you very unhappy.

Freedom Of The Press
 A Necessity . . .

Freedom was once an easily identifiable state for which people left their native lands and sought new borders where limitations on personal and religious liberty had not yet been defined. When they were defined it was in a new Magna Charta known as the Declaration of Independence, and a new country was to grow in the Americas, side by side with a country which incorporated with its allegiance to the old Magna Charta those modifications which were essential in a new land. For these two, freedom has been as the air they breathed, exhilarating, heady air in which growth was inevitable.

And, old as the urge to freedom, has been the necessity of a medium through which the constant need of amendment might be kept before the public. Freedom in common with everything good, must keep on growing and adapting itself to the needs of a people if it is not to perish. From the streets and out of the early prisons where its defenders found themselves, the right of man to free expression through writing and the press has been affirmed. This freedom is not the freedom of one man or one party of an editorial opinion coupled with the opportunity of free expression by those who disagree, in a paper where reporting is accurate and unbiased. These three factors will provide, in any community, a basis for considered action on any public question. They will guard against despotic action and they will guarantee democracy to the world.

If, in any paper, these three things can be bought or sold, freedom has been bought and sold. For sale in a paper is the advertising space which, under the law, should be for sale without any strings attached to it. It is not the least important feature to be considered for the press today must be financially secure to be truly free. There must be no opportunity for bribery or intimidation.

In a day when the Iron Curtain can conceal all but its purpose from millions of men born free, the press of the free world lives on, its opportunities equalled by its responsibilities. "Error of opinion may be tolerated where reason is left free to combat it."

What Other Papers Say . . .

The MACLEOD GAZETTE writes on the C.P.R. firemen's strike: "The cost to the unemployment insurance fund, into which is paid weekly instalments by all Canadian workers, it is estimated will cost $1,800,000 weekly, thereby financing a strike of workers who are staying from work in sympathy with the striking firemen. It was not meant when this fund was started that it would subsidize a strike. Yet that's what it amounts to. It shows that some amendments are required in the regulations governing payments out of the unemployment insurance fund. It could be wiped out if such a condition as this strike lasted over a prolonged period.

The HIGH RIVER TIMES thinks one of the minor frustrations of this life is caused by the individual whose desire or duty leads him to address an audience and nervousness or concern causes him to talk to his plate.

Many speakers spurn the use of a microphone as a material aid that has no part in their public speaking platform — most halls have microphone set-ups today. Why not use them? There are styles to suit all — the plate speaker, the ceiling speaker and the man that learned that good old adage "Stand Up, Speak Up and Shut Up."

The VERNON NEWS hopes . . . new citizens will receive much from Canada, in truth they have much to give also. Our strength as a nation stems from the diversity of cultures being woven into the Canadian heritage, and as a nation we should be glad to receive new citizens seeking to associate themselves with us.

The NANTON NEWS reports on the "Do It Right Now" campaign . . . So many jobs can be done now instead of waiting for spring when carpenters, painters, plumbers and other such tradesmen are hard to get. Right now many of them are still busy but in some cases not so pressingly as they are at other times.

It's just a habit of mind to hold off for warm weather for painting or floor laying, or improvements can be just as satisfactorily done now.

And there's something enlivening about a new cupboard, a new sink, new lights over the steps or over the dining room table which helps to perk the householder up. There's a new interest in merchandising when there's a new paint job on the wall. Improvements in home or shop help to break the tedium of our long Canadian winters.

And it's being forehanded to get many things done now. The farm tractor is fairly idle at this time of year but as the days get longer it will be wanted for half a dozen chores around the farm. In another six or seven weeks the pressure will be on to clean grain and do all the early spring chores. Why not put the tractor in top condition now? Pick the first good day to roll it into town for overhauling.

CORBY, England — A set of false teeth found on a bus in this Northamptonshire town was claimed by both a man and a woman. Both tried them out. The women went home triumphant, and the man is still toothless.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Availability today of the healing power of divine Truth will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday.

Christ Jesus' healing of the "woman which has a spirit of infirmity" eighteen years ago, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself" (Luke 13), will be among the Scriptural passages read from the King James Version of the Bible. The subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be "Truth."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following selection will be among those read (498:1): "God will heal the sick through man, whenever man is governed by God. Truth casts out error now as surely as it did nineteen centuries ago. All of Truth is not understood; hence its healing power is not fully demonstrated."

Canada In 1980 . . .
 Land Of Plenty ! !

The bigger and richer kind of Canada, the Gordon Commission says we can — with fair wisdom and peace — achieve a quarter century hence should not surprise the generation, comments The Financial Post. Look back only 30 years ago and who would have believed a forecast of today's reality?

But the Royal Commission leaves us no doubt as to what kind of political leadership we are going to need if we are to come close to realizing our national potentials. They mean a truce in the petty short-sighted battles between dominion, provincial and municipal governments, an end to the habit of drifting between fearful remembrance of the thirties and timid anticipation of things to come. The great view of the report is that it will irritate all levels of government equally and force at least some re-thinking of policies long established by jurisdictional squabbling. In the report, the commissioners are talking over the heads of the entrenched politicians to the Canadian people, telling us little we didn't know about today's facts of Canadian economic life, but telling it clearly, candidly.

As to the commissioners' conclusions some Canadians will differ with, but no responsible Canadian will be able to ignore them.

JUST STUCK

A motorist whose car was stuck in a muddy ditch calmly set about digging yourself out of the mud? "No," replied the irritated motorist. "My motor just died and I'm digging a hole to bury it in."

"What are you doing, mister, digging yourself out of the mud?"

"No," replied the irritated motorist. "My motor just died and I'm digging a hole to bury it in."

What Do You Think About The . . .

Community Chest effort that is being organized locally? We think it's a fine idea — it will save hours of time and effort by the different collecting agencies and in the long run will return the same benefits that were secured by individual campaigns. From here on all the plan needs for success is a fair share of co-operation from interested bodies. Can't see any reason why it shouldn't go across.

What Do You Think About The . . .

Men's bonspiel which was completed on Friday? Blessed with good curling weather and a good entry, the annual event provided a great deal of interest for those of the fraternity who look forward to winter to test their skill, or luck, on the slippery surface. Some giants fell by the wayside — new giants took their place. That's the way the great winter pastime goes — a champ one day, a chump the next. Would you have it any other way?

What Do You Think About The . . .

Big flurry that is being caused by the people in authority who have given some Indian families of a northern reserve an ejection notice? Many times we have heard the remark: "We should give this country back to the Indians." In this case, no truer words could be spoken.

What Do You Think About The . . .

The numerous areas who are clamoring to get on the hail suppression band-wagon? Red Deer M.D. will hold a plebiscite on the deal next month; Calgary proper, and farmers in the surrounding district, are thinking seriously along the same lines, and we hear murmurs from the Peace River country that the majority up there are in favor. Didsbury area showed the way . . . without help from the provincial government! We wonder now what other project we should pioneer to show the rest of Alberta and Canada that Didsbury is on the map. Maybe if we were to go out and fix the east road into town with picks and shovels it might get the idea across that we do need help sometimes; we can't do it all by ourselves.

What Do You Think About The . . .

The rest room project? Total receipts to date are just under $2,000; that's a long way short of the initial estimate, which ranges around the $5,000 mark. Somewhere, somehow, more green-backs must be thrown into the pot. Any ideas where they will come from?

What Do You Think About The . . .

Architects who cover their mistakes with ivy; the doctors with sod, and the brides with mayonnaise? To our mind none of them should be working in their chosen profession.

HAVE A HEART . . . PLEASE ! ! . . .

At this season of the year, we in the newspaper business liken ourselves to the dry-cleaners swamped with rush orders on the Thursday before Easter — or the barber who has to cope with tardy delinquents on Christmas Eve . . .

There's no rhyme nor reason to the way people leave their news till the last minute; and when St. Peter blows his celestial trumpet, we bet they'll miss the deadline!

This is the season of resumed activities in a score of clubs and groups in the surrounding community. The Pioneer is happy to have their confidence, and to help by publishing their achievements — but why is it that mid-week or weekend functions are not reported until Tuesday or Wednesday of the following week?

It is only through the grace of a co-operative staff, that quite a number of these affairs find a place in our columns on numerous occasions. With correspondence and classified advertising piling in the first of each week, mails and telephones loaded to capacity, and our typesetting machine operating at a hot pace — news of last Friday's meeting, or a wedding two weeks old, are unwelcome guests to the mill at this hour of the weekly grind.

Like the dry-cleaner, and the town barber, we keep a year-round staff. No extra shifts to call in before the deadline; no spare equipment or operators to be pressed into service on unneeded demands. If you have news for your local paper, or advertising that clamors for immediate space — have a heart and send it in early!

Wrong Emphasis Given In Farm Production

Within ten years Canada will be short of cattle, according to W. E. Watson, manager of Public Stockyards Markets of St. Boniface, Man. There is little doubt about that in regard to cattle and a lot of other food products, too. By 1975, it has been estimated, wheat will be about the only Canadian farm product which we will be producing much in excess of our own requirements.

Actually there is no good reason why Canadian farmers should not be able to meet most future demands for cattle and other farm products that will be needed. But this won't happen as long as it is much easier and more profitable to grow wheat and sell it to a government board to be piled into storage even if we can't find an export outlet for it.

But that is exactly what our policy is doing. It's about time we used some common sense and put the emphasis on those farm lines for which there is an assured demand.

LANGUAGE ! ! !

Two students from a Canadian college who made a motor tour of the United States last summer report that their blazers seemed to arouse some curiosity among the people they met. The blazers bear the college's Latin motto: "Timor Dei principium sapientiae" — "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom."

The curiosity was explained when an Oklahoma waitress asked them: "Where are you-all from?"

"Canada," they answered.
"Oh, I see," said the girl. "I've been wondering what language that was."

TRUE TEXAS STYLE

Back in East Texas a group of leading citizens met for a country conference one Saturday night. The conference was well under way when Doctor Smith, one of the oldest physicians, drew aces back to back in a game of stud poker. Everybody stayed. The Doc drew another ace.

At this moment one of the ranchers stood up, bent over double, and went down with a heart attack. The Doc was with him in a flash. It was too late.

The other players stood around dumfounded, while Doc laid him out on a bench and covered him with a coat.

"It's awful," one of them muttered, "what'll we do now?"

"Well, out of respect for old Sam," Doc suggested, "maybe we'd better finish this hand standing up."

Men Who Make Alberta

THE CATTLEMAN

Since 1872, when Albert and John MacDougall brought 100 head of steers and some breeding stock north from Montana, Alberta cattlemen have been steadily building one of this province's major industries. They've built it in size; but, what is more important, they have and still are breeding better and better quality stock, until today Alberta Cattle Sales receive the respected interest of Stockmen the world over.

The men behind the Alberta Cattle Industry, from the large ranchers to the working cowpunchers have left a deep and lasting impression on this Province. Names like Pat Burns, George Lane, A. E. Cross and Archie MacLean stand out in any history of the development of Alberta and the Canadian West. A host of others, among them John Ware and Guy Weadick, have helped shape the pattern of our colorful Western heritage.

There's been many changes since the early trail herds moved in from the South, but the spirit of the range lies deep in the heart of every Albertan . . . so that in centres all over the province, during the summer season, city and country folk alike join the working "Cow Waddie" in the truly Western sport . . . the Rodeo. No better recognition could be offered the men who are so symbolic of the prairie and foothill country.

Notes From D.A.

By Howard J. Fulcher

The place of forage crops in our farming programs is fully known. They provide good nutritious fodder in the form of pasture and hay for our livestock. These crops also build up the fertility and fibre content of the soil, preventing serious erosion from wind or water as well as maintaining the productivity level of the land.

The seeding of both grass and legume crops is fairly well understood, most farmers have seeded them at different times. With the knowledge we have today the risk of a good catch or a spotty stand is relatively small. Many of our poorly established forage stands are due to seeding too deep and in some cases not a firm enough seed bed. To obtain a satisfactory stand the rate of seeding must be heavy enough, the seed of good quality and the seed bed firm. Legume seed must be unincubated and seeded relatively shallow, some grass seeds will survive a little deeper seeding but generally one-half to one inch is a satisfactory depth of seeding.

This year the price of grass and legume seeds will in all probability be quite a bit higher than last year. This does not mean it is too expensive to seed, it is a profitable crop and needed in our farm crop rotation. It is well before purchasing seed to carefully consider what use you will make of the crop for the next few years and the type of soil as well as the topography of the land. Alfalfa for instance gives large tonnage of high quality hay but in pasturing too much alfalfa in a mixture will increase danger of bloat. Reed canary grass will do well on areas which are low and subject to prolonged flooding. Creeping Red Fescue is an excellent pasture grass, providing early and late season pasture with a firm sod.

Anyone planning on seeding forage is invited to call at this office and obtain information and literature, and discuss any particular situation regarding grass and legume crops.

By The Way

Contributed by

REV. T. J. STANTON, M.A.

Among the first records played on primitive little machines, with large horns, called gramophones, were the recordings of Uncle Josh. One of these stories as told, related the results of feeding hens on sawdust when grain was scarce. Uncle Josh said the chickens hatched from the eggs the hens laid when so fed, walked on wooden legs and crutches. During the summer of 1912 a large Barred Rock rooster, belonging to Mr. Cross' homestead flock, at Wittry, Alberta, walked on a three-inch wooden leg. He grew and thrived, he flapped his wings and crowed as he stomped around the farmyard on his peg leg. Wooden legs and crutches have brought untold joy and satisfaction to a large family of daily users. These wags need to use either or both, as many have to do, consider wooden legs and crutches as highly prized blessings. There are others, many of them, whose greatest need today is an artificial leg or a pair of crutches.

Miss Chow Un Hwa walked 200 miles with only one foot; the other was but a rough home-made peg. She wanted an artificial leg more than she wanted anything else in this world. She had heard about where she could get one, and so she walked those long weary miles and had a new limb given to her by a Christian missionary. Now she has learned a trade and is able to make a living for herself and her mother.

Two boys in Korea, one with both feet off and the other, being a little more fortunate in that he still had one whole leg, heard of Miss Chow Un Hwa. They crawled to the woodpile dragging very crude tools, and struggled for days making pegs, that they might be able to stand in line at the church mission house for a warm bowl of soup.

Crutches are not hard to make nor are they hard to use. However, one needs more than a chunk of log, a dull axe or a crude knife to secure results.

The writer knew a good tennis player who had but one good hand and one normal leg. He used a crutch of his own building and how he could literally race with it.

Many of the hundreds of children who are in need of artificial limbs are war casualties. But arms and

GOOD ADVICE !!!

Build for yourself a strong-box, Fashion each part with care; When it's strong as you can make it, Put all your troubles there; Hide all thoughts of your failures, And each bitter cup that you quaff; Lock all your heartaches within it, Then sit on the lid and laugh!

legs are not the only needs in war torn lands. In Korea and Hong Kong 250,000 people have no work, no home, no bed, no food. They sleep on the streets. They live by begging, augmented by the scraps they can pick out of the garbage. Wouldn't you like to feel that because of someone's interest the hungry are being fed, all of them, not only a few. Wouldn't you like to know that because somebody cared, dozens of the boys and girls who could only crawl before are now walking on substantial artificial legs or crutches. Because somebody is caring, much good is being done for the relief of human suffering.

We ought not to forget however our spiritual cripples. People who are crawling and hobbling spiritually, many of whom are in our midst. These are just as unhappy and immature as are the world's legless war orphans.

Spiritual cripples in general hold to some form of empty tradition which is void of power. They crawl around in the mire of doubt when they could be enjoying the undefeatable strength of an all-sufficient faith.

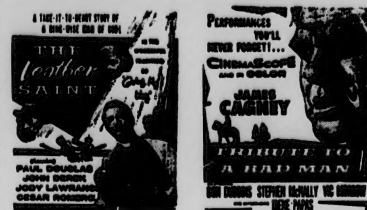

Sloths, living as they do on the under side of leaves, eat, sleep and travel upside down. There is much in this world today upside down. Principles and values that should always be first are often far misplaced. Virtues are often ridiculed and social vices honored. The mind of Christ and the Grace of God, which are sufficient to give mastery over every kind of human deficiency, are too seldom employed. Forgiveness and love are left in idleness by individuals, companies, governments and nations, as the contrary to strange themselves and others with greed, hate and slaughter. Greed, hate and slaughter make poor crutches.

JUST A FEW OF THE MANY GOOD, SOLID REASONS...

NEW FARGO TRUCKS
are sound buys for every hauling job!

1. Fargo's new Forward Look styling—with distinctive hooded headlights—is functional as well as handsome. Its windshield (largest of any truck) gives you 1,023 square inches of vision area for greater "see-safety". Its optional wrap-around rear window adds extra vision area, too. Half-ton models, like the D100 express above, are available with exclusive push-button automatic transmission.

2. New high-compression, short-stroke V-8's are the most powerful in Fargo history—up to 232 h.p. And Fargo's exclusive full-opening hood allows the most elbowroom for servicing. Saves time, money.

3. Exclusive dome-shaped combustion chambers in Fargo V-8's get more GO out of every gallon, make "regular" gas fire like premium, minimize power-robbing carbon deposits. Fargo Sixes are extra thrifty, too.

4. Fargo's new comfort cab has a 5-way adjustable seat, extra roominess, centrally-located dispatch box, many other features. Independent parking brake adjusts from inside cab without tools or trouble.

5. Fargo offers a complete range of husky models to meet every hauling requirement.

Fargo trucks range from 4,250 lbs. to 46,000 lbs. G.V.W., and up to 65,000 lbs. G.C.W. Many with greater capacities. Frames and other chassis components are built stronger than ever, too.

YOUR ALBERTA

THE RESPONSE to this series of advertisements is most gratifying. So much so, it has become necessary to reprint a booklet prepared by the Government outlining the duties and objectives of the various departments serving you. If your request entails mailing of this booklet, please bear with us if it is slow in reaching you. Mailings will be made immediately on receipt from the printer.

AT ONE TIME or another everyone has something to say about education. It's good, or bad, or too much one way or another. Generally, the matter of accommodation of students is the one for which many Albertans feel the most. The shape of things to come were they to realize that experts forecast a whopping jump in Alberta High School enrollments in the years ahead.

With figures given in THOUSANDS, the following figures of High school enrollment are offered, with future years as estimates:

	1945	1954	1955	1975	1985
Grade X	7.6	9.9	17.2	26.7	33.8
Grade XI	5.8	7.9	14.7	25.3	32.5
Grade XII	5.2	6.3	14.4	22.5	28.6
Totals	18.6	24.1	46.3	74.5	94.9

FIGURES about anyone's type of business except your own are sometimes a bore, and difficult to assimilate. But due to everyone's dependence on food, figures on agricultural production costs are actually everyone's business. The Department of Agriculture made a survey recently on the crop costs per cultivated acre in one Alberta district over the period from 1951 to 1955. The results have led many farmers into realizing the importance of the cost reduction in profitable farm operations and have created interest in the Farm Planning Program offered by the Extension Service of the Department of Agriculture.

FOR EXAMPLE, in 1951, the total cash expenses such as tractor operating expenses, taxes, buildings, and so on, came to $10.47 per cultivated acre. In 1955, they were $7.58 per cultivated acre. In the non-cash expense field, which includes the crop share of depreciation, interest on land investment, farmer's own labor at hired rates, and so on, in 1951 were $11.71; in 1955 they were $9.41.

COST per cultivated acre in 1951 was $22.18; in 1955, $16.99. The average crop returns for the same years were $28.62 and $20.42. The margin of return per acre for risk and management dropped from $6.44 in 1951 to $3.43 in 1955.

INTERESTING sidelight is the fact that in 1951, 60 percent of farm cash receipts came from crops, and in 1955 it was 19 percent.

MORE INFORMATION on the Farm Planning Program may be obtained from your District Agriculturalist or the Department of Agriculture.

WATCH FOR US NEXT WEEK.

Agriculturists Are Capitalists?

All wealth has its origin in the natural resources which nature has deposited on the earth. Human understanding and human energy are required to tap these resources and convert them into things useful to man. Much of the wealth, so created, is consumed immediately; but some of it is saved for future use.

Saved wealth can be accumulated and invested in tools and appliances for creating more wealth. Wealth, so invested, is called capital and those who accumulate and invest it are capitalists.

Man is a tool-using animal. It is his ability to devise tools and to use them that has lifted him above all other creatures, and has made him the lord of creation.

The amount of wealth a man can create by the use of efficient tools and equipment is many times greater than he could create with only the tools which nature gave him. But tools and equipment are capital. They are the product of labor which has been saved and converted into something of lasting value. They are capital and the man who puts his savings into them is a capitalist.

As such, he is a benefactor of the human race, for he creates more wealth than he consumes, and will leave the world richer than he found it.

Not every man is capable of saving, and not every one who saves is capable of investing his savings wisely, and managing his investments successfully. Those who can do these things are valuable citizens and are very necessary to the prosperity of us all.

The farmer is essentially a capitalist. He, more than most men, saves a portion of his income and invests it in his business, thus adding to the productive capacity of the country.

Necessity drives him to this. He knows that if he doesn't save seed from this year's crop, he will have no crop next year; that if he neglects to provide food, water and shelter for his livestock, he will soon have no livestock; and that if he fails to invest in efficient equipment for doing his work, he will have little income in the years to follow. The constant demands of his farm compel him to save, to invest and to look after his investments.

The farmer who converts a tract of wild land into cultivated and productive fields doesn't get paid every Saturday night for his week's work. He works and waits years for the full reward of his toil; and, in doing so, he exercises the wisdom and as well as builds up reserves of productive power against his own declining years.

Such a man is a true capitalist. He has little in common with the worker whose sole ambition is to draw the highest possible cash wages every pay day, spend them as he gets them, and expects the government and his employer to look after him in his old age.

There is a prejudice in the world today against capitalists. They are held up as evil-minded, rapacious people who grind the faces of the poor, and rob the worker of the just reward of his toil. In some countries they are looked on as enemies of the people and put to death.

We haven't gone that far in Canada, but there is a disposition among us to look on the capitalists as legitimate prey for unscrupulous politicians and short-sighted labor unions, and as convenient scapegoats on which to load all the economic sins of all the people.

Attempts are being made to enslave the farmers among those who share this prejudice and, unfortunately, some self-appointed farm leaders are allowing themselves to be used in support of these attempts. If the farmers are wise, they will have nothing to do with these blind, would-be leaders of the blind. They will not forget that they themselves are capitalists, that an attack on the capitalist system is an attack on the farmers' independence; and that in countries where capitalism is abolished, the farmers are deprived of their land and reduced to the status of serfs.

— The Rural Scene

SCHOOL SUGGESTED FOR LABOR LEADERS

In the long run it would probably be a good thing if more union leaders were elected to public office, comments Financial Post. If there were more like Toronto's Controller Ford Brand, this country would be saved a lot of costly, disturbing, in many cases totally unnecessary industrial strife, including the recent strike of C.P.R. employees.

In a speech just after his fifth consecutive year on Toronto's city council, Mr. Brand made this significant observation: "The best thing that can happen to a union business agent is to be elected to city council. It makes you realize that there are two sides to the picture in negotiations."

But Mr. Brand's education is not quite complete. In every industrial dispute there are three sides to the picture: labor's, management's and most important of all, that of the general public or the consumer. It's the third who eventually pays the full cost of every industrial dispute.

Quoteable Quotes . . .

Sometimes we learn more from a man's error than from his virtues.

Men are not to be judged by what they do not know, but by what they know, and the manner in which they know it.

The trouble with many people in trying times is that they stop trying.

If something goes wrong, it is more important to talk about who is going to fix it than who is to blame.

There is a wealth of unexpressed love in the world. It is one of the chief causes of sorrow evoked by death; what might have been said or might have been done that never can be said or done.

Blessed are they who were not satisfied to let well enough alone. All the progress the world has made, we owe to them.

A successful man keeps looking for work after he has found a job.

FALLEN TIMBER

(From Our Own Correspondent)

The teacher, Mrs. Luft, had the misfortune to upset her truck going home from school recently. Fortunately no one was hurt and little damage was done to the vehicle.

The snow plow has finally been over the roads out here (the first time this winter), for which we are very grateful, as the road from Elkton west has been treacherously icy.

Jeannie Howton spent the weekend with Katherine Fyten.

June Money spent the same time at the home of Carol Teynor.

A surprise birthday party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Money recently in honor of Mrs. Rose Howton, with approximately 60 people present to wish her "many happy returns." It was a most delightful surprise to the guest of honor and she was the recipient of many lovely gifts.

Danny Howton spent the weekend with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Moore in Calgary.

Mr. and Mrs. Ester McMullen and Bruce were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Fyten Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe McGiffin and family attending the wedding of Miss Mariel Bruns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Bruns of Carstairs, to Mr. Howard Klysen of Calgary on Saturday afternoon at Carstairs.

Some very interesting films were shown at the school on Saturday evening.

Gallup Poll Takes Another Count . . .

The Gallup Poll, that accurate source of information, says that sixty-two per cent of the people of Canada think that taxes are too high. Thirty-three per cent say they are about right and five per cent either think they pay no taxes or don't know.

It is the thirty-three per cent who are wrong. All taxes are too high. Many taxes are necessary because it is necessary to have some sort of government and governments live on taxes. But the public at large should be constantly reminded that taxes are an evil, a necessary evil that should be curbed at every opportunity.

There may or may not be some connection between Mr. St. Laurent's proposal further to subsidize the universities and the Gallup Poll's report that the more schooling a person has, the more likely he is to think that taxes are not too high.

Those with public or no schooling agree to the extent of sixty-five per cent that taxes are too high; those who have been to high school agree to the extent of sixty-three per cent; while the graduates of universities split almost evenly, a forty-eight who think they are too high, forty-seven who think they are about right, and five per cent of the "educated" the Saints preserve us, can't say.

Fathers who work their fingers to the bone to upgrade educationally the younger generation may be keener to the fact that a university diploma, on the basis of opinions on taxation, appears to be a license to be foolish.

GEMS OF THOUGHT

POPULARITY

That empty and ugly thing called popularity.

— R. L. Stevenson

True popularity is not the popularity that is followed after, but the popularity which follows after.

— Lord Mansfield

Popularity is a crime from the moment it is sought; it is only a virtue when men have it whether they will or not.

— George Henry Titton

Farmers' Union Send Representatives East

At a recent meeting of the Farmers' Union of Alberta executive plans were finalized for sending 10 members to attend the remainder of the session of the federal government at Ottawa. Plans call for Mr. Henry Young, the vice-president, to leave this weekend. The following weekend, Mr. A. B. Wood of Dewberry will go. Each will stay for approximately two weeks. Thus, someone will be leaving Alberta every week to replace one of the people in Ottawa. Farm people cannot usually leave their farms for more than a two week period. In addition to the above-mentioned, seven other members will make the trek east.

While in Ottawa these people will pay particular attention to legislation affecting agriculture and acquaint members of parliament with the problems faced by Alberta farmers and the F.U.A. policies and programs.

M.V.B.C. NEWS

(From Our Own Correspondent)

The Gospel Service League was very busy last Sunday. All but one team of seven students held services in some church. The students appreciate the active work they are privileged to have in teaching and preaching as they take their college courses.

A number of the faculty and students attended the shower given by Gwen Brado at her home in honor of the bride-elect, Marilyn Umbach. She received many useful gifts. Our best wishes go with Marilyn. That same evening the young men had a stag party for Willard Stauffer in the boys' dorm. The gentlemen of the faculty attended.

Miss Lois Suder was a visitor at her mother's home over the weekend. Miss Eby entertained Mrs. Suder and Lois and Miss Adelaide Takana at dinner on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Kasey was a dinner guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Hunsperger on Sunday.

Rev. Stickie and Rev. Heppener were guests at chapel on Thursday.

The choir brought a splendid message. Rev. Ray Shantz was chapel speaker on Friday.

Rev. Bob Simpson showed a picture during chapel period on Tuesday, depicting the good effects of boys' clubs and Sunday school on juvenile delinquents. It would seem such activities could be started where boys and girls have little advantages in life.

The new semester is well under way. Translating portions of the New Testament from the original Greek is occupying the time and attention of several of the young men.

Have you listened recently to the Good News program over CKKL at 7:30 a.m. Sunday morning. It is worth hearing!

Midway News

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bergen celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary January 12 in Bertha Monmonie church. Rev. John Loewen of Didsbury was guest speaker.

Many visitors from far and near were in attendance.

Two Midway rinks entered the men's curling in town. The Shields rink took third in the 1st event and fourth in the 4th event.

The Midway men's bonspiel has been changed to Feb. 11-16.

The military whist and sale of bazaar articles, sponsored by Trenchard W.I., was a successful venture, both entertaining and financially, thanks to Mr. T. Dench who very kindly auctioned the handwork and home baking.

Those at the winning table of whist were Mr. T. Dench, Miss Marie Stuber, Tom Dench and Jerry Good. Consolation went to Mrs. P. Hansen, Beverly Dench, Ken Swenson and Austin Fisher.

Mrs. G. Hoskin and family returned from Spokane recently. Mrs. Hoskin reports her brother improving slowly from his illness.

Miss Marilyn Umbach, January bride-elect, was guest of honor at a shower Thursday evening when Miss Gwen Brado and her mother were hostesses to the ladies.

Several novel contests were enjoyed by the ladies during the evening. Marilyn was then seated under a canopy of blue and pink streamers and pastel, confetti-filled balloons. She was assisted in opening the many lovely gifts by Miss Karen Ray and Miss Lillian Stanger, amid showers of confetti. The guest of honor then graciously thanked the ladies for their kind remembrances.

Following a bountiful lunch the guests departed, wishing Marilyn much happiness for the future.

Miss Umbach was also honored on the previous Saturday at a shower in the Jackson district when Mrs. Wilfred Owens and daughters, Janice and Joan, entertained about 25 ladies.

The afternoon was spent in compiling a book of advice to the bride. Seated under white streamers and bells, Marilyn, assisted by Miss Owen Brado, opened many useful and beautiful gifts. Marilyn sincerely thanked the guests for their gifts and best wishes.

A lovely lunch was served by the hostesses and their helpers.

MIDWAY HOME AND SCHOOL DISCUSS INDIAN AFFAIRS

The January meeting of Midway Home and School was held on Monday, the 14th, with president Mr. George Brown presiding. Due to the number engaged in curling, attendance was just fair. A lively business session was held and the skating fees were set at one dollar per family.

An interesting discussion on Indian affairs was held, followed by a very good film on "The Vanishing Indian." Mr. T. Morris, who was to have been guest speaker, was unable to be present.

Mrs. Shields is to see if the ice near their place is fit for the skating party. A motion was made that five spool knitters be kept and the remainder returned. The supervisors will get wool for the juniors.

Members will learn a valentine verse for the February meeting, which will be held at the home of Mrs. Dan Thompson. After the meeting adjourned the juniors were given how to spool knit and the seniors worked on cutting out pyjama patterns, which was demonstrated by Mrs. Clipper. The 10:00 draw was won by Bev Thompson and the bit of fun by Molly Lukas.
